

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Duferco Travi e Profilati Group

The importance of protecting the environment has pushed Duferco Travi e Profilati SpA and the companies it runs to obtain an Environmental Management System according to the requirements of UNI EN ISO 14001 in order to improve the constant and continuous improvement of their environmental performance, in accordance with the principles of sustainable development and taking into account the context in which it operates.

Responsibility in environmental management concerns the entire company organization, from the management of the Group companies to each worker, and the contractors operating within each production site, each according to their role and skills.

With this in mind and on the basis of the values expressed in the company Code of Ethics, the Duferco Travi e Profilati Group undertakes to:

- comply with legal requirements (including any other environmental requirements signed by the Company) and company procedures on environmental protection;
- manage production activities in order to prevent and / or reduce the environmental impacts associated with it, with particular attention to the management of waste produced and the risks associated with the use of pollutants;
- adopt the best technologies available to prevent and / or minimize environmental pollution and optimize the consumption of natural resources and raw materials;
- disseminate within the plant, through constant awareness-raising, information and training, a culture aimed at implementing correct forms of behavior in terms of environmental protection;
- inform workers of contractors and visitors about the environmental aspects present within the plant and monitor their behavior with respect to the instructions given;
- encourage the participation and collaboration of all interested parties in order to support and promote any initiative aimed at environmental protection.

This Policy represents the guide for the continuous improvement of the environmental performance of the plant and constitutes the reference framework for the definition and review of environmental objectives.

The Environmental Policy is disseminated to all personnel, displayed on company notice boards, and made available to all interested parties on the company website.
